

VOICE TEACHING VACANCY

From 6th January 2025

Are you passionate about music education? Do you have the skill and enthusiasm to inspire students to unlock their musical potential? We're seeking a dedicated and talented Voice Teacher to join our fantastic team and deliver engaging one-to-one, small-group lessons and lead vocal ensembles in schools across Kirklees.

This position will be hourly paid £29.12 per contact hour (plus teachers' pension)

There are currently 8.5 hours of Voice teaching over 2 days per week, plus a significant scope for expansion. The current work includes a variety of school settings that you would be required to teach every week (for 33 weeks during term time). In addition to the regular teaching, there will be further opportunities to work on projects with our talented vocal team and attend CPDL sessions, and additional time will be allocated for recruitment.

Closing date for applications: Friday 22nd November 12PM

Provisional Interview date: Thursday, the 5th of December 2024

You will require an Enhanced DBS, and you will need to be able to transport yourself between different schools during each working day

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Delivering high-quality voice lessons to students of all ages and skill levels.
- Plan effective lessons/rehearsals
- Inspire students to develop a love for music and a lifelong passion for singing.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Proven experience in voice teaching to students of varying abilities.
- Proficiency in music theory and vocal skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Enthusiasm for working with children and adults.
- Flexibility to travel to different schools within Kirklees.
- Piano skills are desirable

Musica Kirklees is passionate about providing all children with access to music. You should have a commitment to equality, diversity, and inclusion, as well as a proven track record of excellence, a vision for inspiring more young people to participate in music, and the ability to motivate young people to achieve their personal best.

Application forms are available from Niki Matthews (PA to the Principal). Please email niki.matthews@musicakirklees.org or visit our 9 Beast Market, Huddersfield, HD1 1QF office.
